AbbVie Inc.	05/06/2022	Management	6	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	Against	Against	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote FOR this proposal is warranted as it seeks the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman to be an independent director.
AbbVie Inc.	05/06/2022	Management	7	Yes	Eliminate Supermajority Vote Requirement	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this item is warranted given that it is positive for shareholders to have the ability to vote on severance amounts that exceed market norms, the proposal applies only to future severance arrangements, leaving current agreements unaffected, and the proposal offers flexibility as to when the board may seek shareholder approval of a new or renewed severance arrangement, such as at the next annual meeting.

Activision Blizzard, Inc.	04/28/2022	Management	1	Yes	Approve Merger Agreement	For	For	For	For	While it is possible that the merger will not receive regulatory approval, shareholders face a potential downside risk of non-approval given ATV's outperformance against the market, recent disappointing financial results, and ongoing investigations by federal, state, and securities authorities. Additionally, the merger consideration delivers a premium, appears fair from a valuation standpoint, and provides liquidity and certainty of value for shareholders. On balance, a vote FOR the proposed transaction is warranted.
Activision Blizzard, Inc.	04/28/2022	Management	2	Yes	Advisory Vote on Golden Parachutes	For	For	For	For	While there are some concerns regarding recent increases to the double-trigger severance entitlements for NEOs other than the CEO, the resulting amounts are not considered excessive, and no excise tax gross-ups are expected. Further, the entirety of outstanding equity awards are subject to double trigger vesting. Lastly, any additional incentive compensation that may be received by the CEO following the merger will require the board's assessment of sufficient progress on related goals. In balancing these factors, and given that the vast majority of NEOs' golden parachute payments are double-triggered, a vote FOR this proposal is warranted.

The company failed to demonstrate adequate responsiveness to last year's say-on-pay vote, despite receiving less than majority support for the second year in a row. While the company engaged with investors following the annual meeting, shareholders' feedback is disclosed only in vague terms. In addition, it is not clear that the company has made any changes to address the concerns underlying the failed 2021 vote.Pay-for-performance concerns are mitigated in light of recent improvements to the company's incentive programs. The weight of the individual performance component in the annual incentive program was reduced from 50 percent to 20 percent, and a concerning secondary funding mechanism was removed. Further, the grant date value of the CEO's equity awards was lower in 2021 compared to 2020. Finally, beginning in 2022 the CEO will participate in the ordinary long-term incentive program.

Affiliated Managers Group, Inc.	05/27/2022	Management	9	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted. The newly implemented total incentive assessment scorecard is predominantly based on quantified and objective goals with disclosed targets. While the significant number of metrics and lack of disclosed threshold goals warrants continued monitoring, the new scorecard provides significantly more transparency into pay decisions compared to the separate STI and LTI assessments utilized in prior years, each of which relied heavily on committee discretion. Transparency is further enhanced by the introduction target incentive opportunities and pre-set formula for cash and equity awards. In addition, LTI awards are majority based on clearly disclosed multi-year goals, target and maximum LTI goals increased, and the percentage of the award that vests for threshold performance was reduced without a reduction in the threshold goal. Continued monitoring of the pay program structure is warranted, given the significant changes in incentive program structure and metric selection.

Air Lease Corporation	05/04/2022	Management	11	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, with caution. Though annual incentives are primarily based on pre-set, objective metrics, a concern is noted regarding target setting, as the revenue goal was set below the prior year's actual performance with a corresponding reduction in a target bonus opportunity for executives. Furthermore, the strategic goal targets are not clearly disclosed. These issues are compounded as the executive chairman's base salary and target bonus opportunity each exceed the CEO's. These concerns are mitigated for the year in review, however. Although the mix of performance-contingent equity was reduced 10 percentage points in 2021, LTI awards remained majority performance-based and require a long-term improvement in book value and relative TSR outperformance for target payout. Moreover, performance-contingent equity will revert to a 75 percent mix for the 2022 LTI award, and a closing cycle performance equity award vested below target, which was in line with company performance. Continued monitoring of STI goal setting and the executive chairman's pay are warranted.

Alleghany Corporation	06/09/2022	Management	1	Yes	Approve Merger Agreement	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted. Despite the limited sales process, the merger consideration represents a 24.8 percent premium at announcement and a 16 percent premium to the company's 52-week high prior to the announcement. Additionally, the all-cash consideration provides shareholders with liquidity and certainty of value, and there is downside risk of non-approval, evidenced by outperformance relative to industry and market indices since the announcement.
Alleghany Corporation	06/09/2022	Management	2	Yes	Advisory Vote on Golden Parachutes	For	Against	Against	Against	There are concerns around severance, tax gross-ups, and equity award treatment. Although NEOs' potential cash severance amounts are not excessive, they represent a recent enhancement as NEOs previously were not entitled to change-in-control severance. Further, two NEOs are estimated to receive problematic excise tax gross-ups, also the result of a recent agreement. Lastly, NEOs' outstanding performance equity awards will convert at an assumed maximum performance level, without compelling rationale disclosed in the proxy. In light of these concerns, a vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted.

AmerisourceBergen Corporation	03/10/2022	Management	12	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR the proposal is warranted, as the compensation committee demonstrated adequate responsiveness to last year's say-on-pay vote. Following feedback that negative votes were primarily driven by concerns related to the committee's approach to the impact of an opioid litigation expense accrual recorded in 2020, the company improved disclosure surrounding the issue in this year's proxy and applied negative discretion to NEOs' 2021 annual incentive payouts. In addition, CEO pay and company performance are reasonably aligned for the year in review.

										Voting Policy Rationale
AmerisourceBergen Corporation	03/10/2022	Management	13	Yes	Approve Omnibus Stock Plan	For	For	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted because the equity granted to the named executives during the last fiscal year exceeds 15 percent of total awards.
AmerisourceBergen Corporation	03/10/2022	Shareholder	14	Yes	Adopt a Policy That No Financial Metric Be Adjusted to Exclude Legal or Compliance Costs in Determining Executive Compensation	Against	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, in light of the significant shareholder concerns recently raised regarding the company's exclusion of certain litigation-related costs from the executive compensation program, along with the magnitude of the 2020 opioid-related litigation accrual and the continued exclusion of a similar accrual from the 2021 incentive program. Given that the proposal would provide the board with flexibility to adjust the application of the policy in individual circumstances, with an explanation to shareholders, the request is not viewed as overly prescriptive.

Analog Devices, Inc.	03/09/2022	Management	13	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, with caution. A large increase in CEO pay was due to a sizable special grant of performance options in FY21. While there is some concern regarding the large value of the award, it is entirely contingent on achievement of pre-set share price hurdles. The proxy also includes a robust description of the compensation committee's rationale as well as a statement that they do not intend to grant the CEO an additional special award during the performance period of this award. Additionally, although there are some goal rigor concerns, annual incentives are entirely based on pre-set financial metrics. Further, half of regular annual equity grants include performance conditions, which utilize a multi-year performance period. Although the overall pay program is sufficiently performance-based, ongoing monitoring of pay outcomes and practices are warranted.
Analog Devices, Inc.	03/09/2022	Management	14	Yes	Approve Qualified Employee Stock Purchase Plan	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted given that:* The purchase price is reasonable;* The number of shares reserved is reasonable; and* The offering period is within the limits prescribed by Section 432 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Anaplan, Inc.	06/21/2022	Management	1	Yes	Approve Merger Agreement	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted given that the all-cash offer represents a 30.5 percent premium to the unaffected share price and provides liquidity and certainty of value. In addition, there is a potential downside risk of non-approval given the outperformance of PLAN shares to date relative to peers.
Anaplan, Inc.	06/21/2022	Management	2	Yes	Adjourn Meeting	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted given that the underlying transaction warrants shareholder support.

APA Corporation	05/13/2022	Management	13	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. While the complexity of the annual incentive plan has been somewhat reduced, the program continues to use a large number of metrics and several metrics lack clear disclosure of pre-set performance targets and corresponding pay outcomes. Further, in the long-term program, TSR shares target effectively median performance while the other financial target is not disclosed. Although the proxy states the committee will reduce the CEO's 2022 equity awards to maintain alignment with the market, the number of shares underlying long-term incentive grants significantly increased in FY21, creating a potential windfall opportunity in the event of a stock price rebound.

Apple Inc.	03/04/2022	Management	11	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted, due to concerns around equity award design and pay magnitude. While the CEO's FY21 equity award marks his first LTI award since his mega award 10 years ago, half of the $75 million award is purely time-based, and the award would continue to vest in full in the event of his retirement. Further, the company does not disclose that the award is intended to cover multiple years of future awards, despite its large size, and CEO Cook received another sizable grant of equity after the end of the fiscal year. In addition, notwithstanding that Apple is the largest company in its peer group, other NEOs consistently receive equity awards with values that approach the median total CEO pay of peers, and CEO Cook's relatively high base salary contributes to significant STI payout opportunities. Moreover, the company continues to provide an inordinate amount of personal use of corporate aircraft and security perquisites to the CEO.

Apple Inc.	03/04/2022	Shareholder	14	Yes	Approve Revision of Transparency Reports	Against	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, as additional information regarding the company's policies and processes regarding freedom of expression and access to information would help shareholders gauge the company's management of related reputational risk.
Apple Inc.	03/04/2022	Shareholder	15	Yes	Report on Forced Labor	Against	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, as increased transparency on Apple's supply chain policies and processes could help alleviate growing risks related to manufacturing in certain regions.
Apple Inc.	03/04/2022	Shareholder	16	Yes	Report on Median Gender/Racial Pay Gap	Against	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, as shareholders could benefit from the median pay gap statistics that would allow them to compare and measure the progress of the company's diversity and inclusion initiatives.
Apple Inc.	03/04/2022	Shareholder	17	Yes	Report on Civil Rights Audit	Against	For	For	For	A vote FOR this resolution is warranted, as an independent civil rights audit would help shareholders better assess the effectiveness of Apple's efforts to address the issue of any inequality in its workforce and its management of related risks.
Apple Inc.	03/04/2022	Shareholder	18	Yes	Report on Concealment Clauses	Against	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted because more information on the impact that the company's standard arbitration provision has on Apple's employees may bring information to light that could result in improved recruitment, development and retention and could help the company prepare for pending federal legislation on the matter.

Aramark	02/01/2022	Management	14	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, with caution, as the committee demonstrated adequate responsiveness to shareholder concerns following last year's low say-on-pay vote result. Shareholders' primary concern related to the use of special awards and adjustments to in-flight awards to moderate the impact of the pandemic on performance-based components of pay. In response, the committee states its acknowledgement that adjusting in-flight awards or making special awards are tools to only be used in extraordinary circumstances. However, it remains unclear from this disclosure what may be considered as an exceptional circumstance, such as whether the COVID-19 pandemic will be assessed as an ongoing exceptional circumstance, or how frequently the committee would consider making one-time awards. Continued close monitoring of award practices is warranted.

Ares Management Corporation	06/09/2022	Management	12	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. Equity awards granted to the CEO in FY21 were predominantly performance-based, as the proxy indicates the CEO received the entirety of a multi-year PSU award and only the first of four tranches of guaranteed time-vesting RSU grants. The magnitude of reported CEO pay may raise some concern for certain investors, as the CEO's reported pay exceeds the annual CEO compensation at some of the largest financial institutions in the world. In addition, the company does not disclose a meaningful cap on executives' carried interest and incentive fee payments, which increased significantly, year-over-year, nor does the proxy disclose exactly how such payments are calculated, which makes it difficult for investors to assess the pay-for-performance linkage.

Company Name	Meeting Date	Proponent	Proposal Sequence Number	Votable Proposal	Proposal Text	Management Recommendation	ISS Recommendation	Voting Policy Recommendation	Vote Instruction	B.1.a Voting Policy Rationale
Bank of America Corporation	04/26/2022	Management	15	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	Annual incentive pay determinations were guided by a wide-ranging performance assessment, but they are ultimately determined discretionally, which raises concern. Further, for consecutive years, financial factors used to assess the CEO's performance scorecard have changed without specific rationale provided. While these issues warrant continued close monitoring, there are sufficient mitigating factors. Specifically, CEO pay and company performance are aligned for the year in review, and the increase in the CEO's incentive awards directionally aligns with the company's improved financial and stock price performance. Further, the CEO's long-term equity incentives are predominantly performance-conditioned with clearly disclosed multi-year goals and a vesting design that has no upside potential. On balance of these factors, a cautionary vote FOR this proposal is warranted. A quantitative pay-for-performance misalignment going forward may be met with increased scrutiny of pay program structure.
Bank of America Corporation	04/26/2022	Management	16	Yes	Ratify PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as Auditors	For	For	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this item is warranted as the auditor's tenure at the company exceeds seven years.
Bank of America Corporation	04/26/2022	Management	17	Yes	Adopt the Jurisdiction of Incorporation as the Exclusive Forum for Certain Disputes	For	For	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted as exclusive forum provisions have the potential to deprive shareholders of the flexibility to choose the forum in which to file claims and as such cannot be supported under Public Fund Advisory Services policy.
Bank of America Corporation	04/26/2022	Shareholder	18	Yes	Report on Civil Rights and Nondiscrimination Audit	Against	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this resolution is warranted, as the company has non-discrimination, non-harassment, and non-retaliation policies in place and provides sufficient information for shareholders to assess any reverse discrimination effect the company's employee programs and training materials may be having.
Bank of America Corporation	04/26/2022	Shareholder	19	Yes	Adopt Fossil Fuel Lending Policy Consistent with IEA's Net Zero 2050 Scenario	Against	Against	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, as it should serve to enhance the company's current commitments to net zero activities and help ensure stronger alignment between the company's net zero goals and its policies and actions. Adoption of the resolution would also provide shareholders with a better understanding of the company's management and oversight of related risks.
Bank of America Corporation	04/26/2022	Shareholder	20	Yes	Report on Charitable Contributions	Against	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted because the company provides sufficient information regarding its charitable contributions, and absent self-dealing or gross negligence, management should be afforded discretion in determining the company's charitable giving strategy.

Baxter International Inc.	05/03/2022	Management	14	Yes	Provide Right to Act by Written Consent	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted given that the ability to act by written consent would give shareholders an additional means to act on matters between annual meetings.
Baxter International Inc.	05/03/2022	Management	15	Yes	Reduce Ownership Threshold for Special Shareholder Meetings to 15%	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this binding proposal is warranted, as reducing the ownership threshold to call a special meeting from 25 percent to 15 percent of outstanding shares would enhance shareholder rights.
Baxter International Inc.	05/03/2022	Shareholder	16	Yes	Reduce Ownership Threshold for Special Shareholder Meetings to 10%	Against	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted. Lowering the ownership threshold from 25 percent (or 15 percent, if Item 5 is approved) to 10 percent would improve shareholders' ability to use the special meeting right while the risk of abuse of the right would remain small.
Baxter International Inc.	05/03/2022	Shareholder	17	Yes	Require Independent Board Chair	Against	Against	For	For	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. As such, a vote FOR this proposal is warranted.

Becton, Dickinson and Compan	01/25/2022	Management	14	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, with caution, as the committee demonstrated adequate responsiveness to shareholder concerns following last year's low say-on-pay vote result. Shareholders' primary concern related to the granting of supplemental awards to certain employees, not including the CEO, to address the lost value of previously granted performance shares. In response, the committee states that it will only consider making similar awards under exceptional circumstances after first consulting with its larger shareholders. However, it remains unclear from this disclosure what may be considered as an exceptional circumstance, or how frequently the committee would consider making one-time awards, and continued close monitoring of equity grant practices is warranted.

Berkshire Hathaway Inc.	04/30/2022	Management	8	Yes	Elect Director Christopher C. Davis	For	For	For	For	WITHHOLD votes for Chair and CEO Warren Buffett, Lead Independent Director and Audit Committee Chair Susan Decker, Audit Committee member Meryl Witmer, Director and Vice-Chairman of insurance operations Ajit Jain, and Director, Vice Chairman of non-insurance operations Gregory Abel are warranted as a signal to the board that stronger independent oversight and board management of climate risks at the company are necessary. The company's BHE subsidiary is a laggard in its industry as it does not set near-term and long-term GHG emissions targets, commit to being net-zero by 2050, or report its climate-related risks and opportunities along TCFD guidelines. WITHHOLD votes for Compensation Committee members Stephen Burke, Kenneth Chenault, David Gottesman, and Charlotte Guyman are warranted, in the absence of a management say-on-pay proposal. CEO Buffett's compensation remains minimal, but two NEOs each continue to receive base salaries of $16.0 million, which are some of the largest base salaries paid to any executive at a U.S. public company, and overall executive pay lacks a measurable link to company performance. Pay disclosure is minimal, leaving shareholders with little information to assess decisions regarding, or committee oversight of, compensation determinations for executives. Other problematic pay practices include large security-related perquisite, lack of preset performance criteria and lack of risk mitigating provisions. WITHHOLD votes for non-independent nominees Warren Buffett, Susan (Sue) Decker, Gregory Abel, Susan Buffett, Howard Buffett, Stephen (Steve) Burke, David Gottesman, Charlotte Guyman, Ajit Jain, Charles Munger and Ronald Olson are warranted for lack of a majority independent board. WITHHOLD votes for Susan (Sue) Decker, Stephen (Steve) Burke, David Gottesman and Charlotte Guyman are also warranted for serving as non-independent members of a key board committee. WITHHOLD votes for incumbent Audit Committee members Susan (Sue) Decker and Meryl Witmer are warranted for failing to include auditor ratification on the proxy ballot. Berkshire Hathaway Inc.	04/30/2022	Shareholder	16	Yes	Require Independent Board Chair	Against	For	For	For	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote FOR this proposal is warranted as it seeks the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman to be an independent director.

While pay and performance were reasonably aligned for the year in review, the compensation committee did not demonstrate sufficient responsiveness to last year's low say-on-pay vote. Although the proxy describes meetings with shareholders, cites their feedback, and made positive changes to the 2022 pay program, the committee did not disclose a robust commitment not to repeat an action that investors found concerning. Separately, shareholders are advised to monitor goal disclosure, which needs improvement. Lastly, concerns are also raised with respect to the significant tax gross-ups provided for the CFO's relocation expense perquisite.

Booking Holdings Inc.	06/09/2022	Management	12	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. Although the annual program is funded formulaically, payouts are determined primarily based on compensation committee discretion and performance factors considered by the committee appear to be highly subjective, a concern which is magnified by the CEO's high target award as a multiple of base salary. In addition, performance for the 2021 PSUs, which had larger values in light of retention concerns, are based on annually set goals and the metrics and measurement period for the first tranche were identical to the metrics and measurement period for the 2021 annual incentive awards. These concerns follow the discretionary adjustment of payouts for 2018 and 2019 PSUs, including the above-target payout of 2018 PSUs.
Booking Holdings Inc.	06/09/2022	Management	13	Yes	Ratify Deloitte & Touche LLP as Auditors	For	For	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this item is warranted as the auditor's tenure at the company exceeds seven years.

Broadcom Inc.	04/04/2022	Management	11	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, with caution. While STI awards are predominantly based on pre-set financial goals, the program's design incorporates a significant degree of discretion for the individual performance multiplier. CEO Tan received his first equity grant following three years of no grants after he received a multi-year equity award in 2017. The equity grant is entirely performance-based, but the target goal is not viewed as particularly rigorous. In addition, CEO Tan received another sizable equity award in FY22, including a one-time award. Besides, three NEOs received sizable promotion grants, half of which are performance-based, but also with a goal that is not particularly rigorous. Nevertheless, high incentive awards are substantiated by strong performance and long-term CEO pay is reasonably aligned with long-term performance at this time. The above noted concerns warrant continued close monitoring.

Capital One Financial Corporation	05/05/2022	Management	14	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	Annual incentive pay determinations, while guided by wide-ranging performance assessments, are ultimately determined discretionally. Investors increasingly prefer an incentive program design that emphasizes objective and formula-driven determinations, which may incorporate discretion to a limited degree. While these issues warrant continued close monitoring, there are sufficient mitigating factors for the year in review. Specifically, the discretionary pay determinations have not resulted in a quantitative pay-for-performance misalignment. The increase in CEO incentive awards directionally aligns with the company's improved financial and stock price performance. Moreover, the CEO's long-term equity incentives are predominantly performance-conditioned with clearly disclosed multi-year goals. On balance of these factors, a cautionary vote FOR this proposal is warranted. A quantitative pay-for-performance misalignment going forward may be met with increased scrutiny of discretionary pay decisions.

Carnival Corporation	04/08/2022	Management	13	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST the proposal is warranted. The annual bonus does not disclose any performance targets or even specific metrics used to determine payouts. Despite poor company performance and a lack of disclosure of goals, the annual bonus paid out at maximum. Furthermore, the company made a change to FY21 equity grants, which are now entirely in time-vested equity. It is incumbent upon a compensation committee to utilize pre-set performance metrics when setting executive compensation, and many investors view a shift from performance-based to entirely time-based or discretionary incentive awards as a problematic response to COVID-19 related market disruption.

While these adjustments resulted in awards being earned at maximum, this is aligned with the company's recent strong TSR performance. Although the compensation committee demonstrated adequate responsiveness to last year's vote result and pay-for-performance concerns for the year under review are mitigated, severance payments made to two former NEOs in FY21 are excessive and neither executives' separation is clearly described in the proxy statement as an involuntary termination for which they would be entitled to such payments under an existing employment or severance agreement. Further, concerns remain with respect to the magnitude of CEO perquisites.

CenterPoint Energy, Inc.	04/22/2022	Management	11	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. While annual and long-term incentives were primarily based on pre-set, financial performance targets, the committee will again increase the maximum opportunity under the short-term program after lowering it for FY21. In addition, the committee made a sizable retention grant to the CEO which is entirely time-based. The grant will also vest after a relatively short period of time, with 40 percent of the award vesting less than 18 months after the grant date. While the proxy discussed the committee's justification regarding a need to retain the CEO, the grant was outsized compared to annual compensation and the rationale in omitting performance criteria was not viewed as compelling.

Ceridian HCM Holding Inc.	05/03/2022	Management	5	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	While pay and performance appear reasonably aligned at this time, some concerns are raised regarding incentive program actions and structures in FY21 and for FY22. While performance shares were introduced in FY21, performance is measured over a one-year period with the same metrics and goal as the annual incentive program. The compensation program therefore lacks a true long-term performance aspect and risks providing significant payouts for short-term performance. Continued monitoring of pay outcomes in FY22 is also warranted as the company implements a co-CEO leadership structure. Moreover, the compensation committee has demonstrated only limited responsiveness to last year's failed say-on-pay vote. While the company has committed to certain additional compensation program changes in FY22, some of the responsive actions were known to shareholders prior to the 2021 annual meeting and do not meaningfully address all of shareholders' concerns. Given this insufficient responsiveness, a vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted.

Votes AGAINST Gregory (Greg) Maffei and Balan Nair are warranted for serving on more than two public boards while serving as CEOs of outside companies. Votes AGAINST Compensation Committee members Eric Zinterhofer, W. Lance Conn, Gregory (Greg) Maffei, Steven Miron, and Mauricio Ramos are warranted given ongoing concerns with respect to large guaranteed time-vesting stock option awards to the CEO, a lack of performance-conditioned long-term incentives for other NEOs, and a change to the CEO's short-term incentive goals that ties a majority of his payout to subjectively determined achievements. In addition, a recently amended employment agreement with NEO Winfrey provides for multi-year guaranteed equity awards. Moreover, concerns are raised with respect to the inclusion of a problematic modified single-trigger severance provision in the CEO's existing employment agreement, provision of excessive life insurance and corporate aircraft-related perquisites, and utilizing above-median benchmarking in determining NEOs' base salaries and target incentive opportunities. A vote FOR the remaining director nominees is warranted.

There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote FOR this proposal is warranted as it seeks the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman to be an independent director.

A pay-for-performance misalignment persisted for the year under review and sufficient mitigating factors were not identified. Annual incentive payouts are heavily impacted by individual performance factors, for which the committee provides limited disclosure of the considerations made when determining payouts. In addition, while the company added certain targets to the annual incentive plan scorecard, threshold and maximum goals are lacking, and disclosure of qualitative goals and achievements is also limited. Lack of such disclosure limits transparency into the pay-for-performance alignment of the program, impeding investors' ability to assess payouts and goal rigor from year to year. Lastly, in the LTI program, performance for the new ROCE metric targets merely the median of peers and, as the peer group is relatively small, a portion of the award will vest for any performance level that is not the bottom of the peer group. The TSR-based performance awards also continue to allow for above-target vesting for negative returns.

Citigroup Inc.	04/26/2022	Management	14	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	There is concern raised by annual incentive pay determinations which, although guided by wide-ranging performance assessments, are ultimately determined discretionally. Moreover, investors may question the need for additional award opportunities in furtherance of goals to address problems around risk and control, when related performance assessments resulted in incentive pay reductions in the prior year. While these issues warrant continued close monitoring, there are sufficient mitigating factors. Specifically, CEO pay and company performance are aligned for the year in review, and the increase in the CEO's incentive awards for the 2021 performance year directionally aligns with the company's modestly improved financial performance. Further, the CEO's long-term incentives are predominantly performance-conditioned with clearly disclosed multi-year goals that were recently increased. Lastly, in a supplemental filing the board has elaborated on the proxy's disclosure regarding the rationale and mechanics of the one-time awards. While the additional disclosure does not fully mitigate concerns, it does address several deficiencies in disclosure in the proxy statement. On balance of these factors, a cautionary vote FOR this proposal is warranted. A quantitative pay-for-performance misalignment going forward may be met with increased scrutiny of pay program structure and one-time pay decisions.
Citigroup Inc.	04/26/2022	Management	15	Yes	Amend Omnibus Stock Plan	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted because the company's potential Voting Power Dilution (VPD) for all incentive plans of 4.57 percent is acceptable.
Citigroup Inc.	04/26/2022	Shareholder	16	Yes	Adopt Management Pay Clawback Authorization Policy	Against	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted as Citigroup's recoupment policies are relatively robust and establishing a collective responsibility among executive officers for monetary penalties imposed on the company is viewed as overly burdensome.
Citigroup Inc.	04/26/2022	Shareholder	17	Yes	Require Independent Board Chair	Against	Against	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted as shareholders would benefit from a policy requiring more independent oversight of management in the form of an independent chairman.
Citigroup Inc.	04/26/2022	Shareholder	18	Yes	Report on Respecting Indigenous Peoples' Rights	Against	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted. The bank and its shareholders are likely to benefit from increased transparency regarding due diligence around Indigenous Peoples' rights in project-related financing and clients' activities, for existing and future business.
Citigroup Inc.	04/26/2022	Shareholder	19	Yes	Adopt a Financing Policy Consistent with IEA's Net Zero Emissions by 2050 Scenario	Against	Against	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, as it should serve to enhance the company's current commitments to net zero activities and help ensure stronger alignment between the company's net zero goals and its policies and actions. Adoption of the resolution would also provide shareholders with a better understanding of the company's management and oversight of related risks.
Citigroup Inc.	04/26/2022	Shareholder	20	Yes	Report on Civil Rights and Non-Discrimination Audit	Against	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this resolution is warranted, as the company has non-discrimination, non-harassment, and non-retaliation policies in place and provides sufficient information for shareholders to assess any reverse discrimination effect the company's employee programs and training materials may be having.

Citizens Financial Group Inc.	04/28/2022	Management	14	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, with caution. Concerns continue to be raised by the heavy reliance on compensation committee discretion in determining total executive pay. In addition, the forward-looking goals for the performance shares remain undisclosed and the committee granted retention awards to senior executives, including NEOs. Whiles these issues warrant continued shareholder monitoring going forward, there are mitigating factors. Notably, the use of discretion has not resulted in a quantitative pay-for-performance misalignment and the increase in performance year pay is directionally aligned with overall company performance. Moreover, equity awards, including the retention awards, are largely performance based and utilize a multi-year measurement period, and the goals are disclosed retroactively. Shareholders are advised to monitor the company's incentive pay structure, particularly should CEO pay and company performance become misaligned going forward.

Cloudflare, Inc.	06/02/2022	Management	6	Yes	Approve Stock Option Grants	For	Against	Against	Against	The magnitude of the awards is excessively large at $620 million in total. The performance goals appear rigorous given that they required 615.6 percent stock price appreciation as of the grant date for the full award to vest and now require 1,734.7 percent appreciation based on the most recent stock price, but they also can be achieved over a long period of 10 years. Additional concerns noted are the lack of an apparent clawback policy, no adjustments to the award size when the co-founders would transition to executive chair or another C-suite position, and there is no apparent commitment not to grant additional awards during the term of the performance awards. In light of these concerns, a vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted.

The company provided the CEO with a $5 million discretionary bonus in connection with extending the term of his employment agreement for one year, and the proxy does not disclose any clawback or repayment provisions if he were to resign or retire. Furthermore, the annual pay program's goal setting is concerning. The financial metric target used in the annual bonus was set below the prior year's actual performance for the third consecutive year without a compelling rationale disclosed or a corresponding reduction in pay opportunity. Goal setting concerns also exist in the LTI program, as performance equity merely targets median performance.

CNA Financial Corporation	04/27/2022	Management	11	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. There are goal rigor and disclosure concerns identified under the STI program: the proxy does not disclose the relative weighting of the corporate and individual performance metrics, and target goals continue to be set below the prior year's results without a clearly disclosed, compelling rationale or corresponding reduction in pay opportunity. Further, the CEO's target STI opportunity is relatively large. Structural concerns are also identified in the LTI program; although the program is entirely performance-based, the company uses the same corporate metric, goals and annual performance period utilized in the STI program, exacerbating goal rigor concerns and providing for duplicative payouts for the same performance results. Concerns are also raised that the company provided an inordinate amount of personal use of corporate aircraft perquisite exceeds seven years.

ConocoPhillips	05/10/2022	Management	15	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. While acknowledging the company's strong financial and share price performance for the year in review, a quantitative pay-for-performance misalignment is identified and underscored by several concerns regarding incentive programs. First, annual incentives, while based on an objective scorecard, lack clear disclosure of threshold and maximum goals for many metrics. This limits investor ability to assess payouts and goal rigor from year to year. The committee also used discretion to increase payouts in FY21. Long-term incentives, while mostly performance-based, target merely median performance and lack a cap on vesting for negative TSR. This is particularly concerning as PSUs have been earned above target for the last four performance cycles.

Coterra Energy Inc.	04/29/2022	Management	12	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	Annual incentives and granted equity for legacy Cabot Oil NEOs were predominantly based on pre-set objective metrics. Additionally, while the combined company granted the current CEO and certain other NEOs, each former Cimarex NEOs, entirely time-based equity post-merger, equity grants will revert to majority performance-based starting in 2022. However, the company materially amended the employment agreement and change-in-control agreement with its former CEO, who remains as executive chairman, without removing entitlements to excise tax gross-up payments. Further, the company provided an excessive amount of relocation benefits to the CEO. As such, a vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted.

Coupa Software Incorporated	05/25/2022	Management	5	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, but with caution. While the majority of the CEO's FY21 equity awards are performance-based with multi-year goals, some goal rigor concern is noted as the relative TSR metric does not target index outperformance and no vesting cap is disclosed in the event of negative TSR. Additionally, while the majority of the NEOs' annual incentives were based on rigorous financial goals, with payouts capped at target, there are concerns about the continued limited disclosure on individual performance assessments. Further, concern exists that the CEO's relatively high base salary may contribute to future pay-for-performance misalignment. Continued monitoring of pay outcomes is warranted.

										A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. The committee used discretion for the second consecutive year to increase the CEO's annual incentive payout. While the FY20 adjustment was clearly explained and related to the COVID-19 pandemic, this year's proxy provided limited rationale regarding the committee's decision to again use discretion to increase payouts. Further, FY20 bonuses remained below target opportunities, while the FY21 adjustment increased the payout to maximum-level. This also came in the same year as an increase to the CEO's salary and bonus target. Many investors may question the decision to use discretion to adjust payouts in consecutive years, particularly with limited rationale. Additionally, the company provided an inordinate amount of personal aircraft perquisites to the CEO/executives.

Cummins Inc.	05/10/2022	Shareholder	16	Yes	Require Independent Board Chair	Against	Against	For	For	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote FOR this proposal is warranted as it seeks the adoption of a policy that requires the separation of the chair and CEO positions and appointment of an independent board chair.

CVS Health Corporation	05/11/2022	Management	13	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR the proposal is warranted. The 2021 STI financial metric target was set lower than the prior year's results. However, the target was set higher than the prior year's results after excluding the incremental positive impact of the pandemic that resulted in discretionary reductions in 2020. There is some concern surrounding lack of clear disclosure related to the customer service/satisfaction metric. However, the STI program is predominantly based on an objective financial metric, and 75 percent of long-term incentives are delivered in performance shares earned based on clearly disclosed multi-year goals. Continued monitoring of STI goal setting and disclosure is warranted.

Ecolab Inc.	05/05/2022	Management	14	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	There are some concerns raised regarding the potential impact of individual performance adjustments on annual incentive payouts. Further, the majority of the CEO's LTI mix is time-based using Public Fund Advisory Services valuation, and the company granted a retention RSU award to one NEO that lacks performance-vesting criteria. However, there are mitigating factors for the year in review. Specifically, the committee positioned the new CEO's target short- and long-term incentives lower than his predecessor's in recognition of the shorter service. Further, the annual incentive is based on an objective financial criterion and the target goal was set higher than the prior year's achieved result. Further, performance equity utilizes multi-year measurement periods and discloses forward-looking targets. Finally, the LTI program caps the maximum vesting opportunity at 100 percent of target. On balance of these factors, a cautionary vote FOR this proposal is warranted.

Annual and long-term incentives are predominantly tied to pre-set, objective performance measures with goals that appear to be rigorous. However, certain concerns are noted with respect to the LTI program, including the use of relatively short two-year performance periods and the lack of forward-looking disclosure of goal targets. Although pay for performance concerns are mitigated for the year under review, continued monitoring of the pay program is warranted given the increasing value of the CEO's LTI awards and the reduction of the performance-based portion of LTI awards in FY22.

A vote FOR this proposal is warranted as it seeks the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman to be an independent director.

Concern is noted regarding lack of disclosure of threshold goals under the annual incentive program and the targeting of relative TSR under the LTI program at merely median performance with no disclose cap on payouts in the event of negative returns. However, the annual and long-term incentive programs are predominantly tied to pre-set, objective performance metrics, with the LTI program utilizing multi-year goals that are prospectively disclosed.

Equinix, Inc.	05/25/2022	Management	10	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted as pay and performance are reasonably aligned for the year in review. Annual incentives are based entirely on financial performance, and the majority of long-term equity awards are performance-based, with a portion utilizing a multi-year performance period. However, the majority of performance-based equity awards utilized the same metrics, goals and performance period as the annual incentive program. In addition, the relative TSR awards target the median and lack a payout cap for negative TSR results.

Annual incentives were entirely based on pre-set financial goals, and half of the long-term incentives were based on multi-year performance goals, although the forward-looking targets were only partially disclosed. However, PSUs that were eligible for vesting in FY21 were earned below target, consistent with long-term performance. The CEO also forfeited his annual incentive and certain equity award vesting upon his resignation. Nevertheless, continued close monitoring is warranted of pay levels, particularly given the leadership transition and already-announced time-based RSU grants to the interim co-CEOs.

Exxon Mobil Corporation	05/25/2022	Management	13	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, with caution. CEO Woods' pay increased year-over-year, in line with the company's financial recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic. Despite small improvements in disclosure, including providing accomplishments for each NEO and additional "focus areas" for compensation, concerns regarding the use of compensation committee discretion remain. Annual bonuses and equity award values continue to rely heavily on the committee's subjective assessment of performance, although the company provides certain considerations for executive pay decisions in the proxy. Further, equity awards do not carry performance vesting criteria, though awards use long time-vesting periods and maintain certain retention requirements. Nevertheless, for the year in review, these structural concerns were mitigated by rebounded financial performance and the alignment between pay and performance for the year in review. However, noted concerns around subjective pay determination and program structure warrant continued close monitoring, particularly should pay and performance not remain closely aligned going forward.
Exxon Mobil Corporation	05/25/2022	Shareholder	14	Yes	Remove Executive Perquisites	Against	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted. Fidelity National Information Services	05/25/2022	Management	13	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	There are some concerns regarding the increase in LTI grant value amid lagging shareholder returns. Also, the design of the LTI program could have a more long-term focus. Fifth Third Bancorp	04/12/2022	Management	16	Yes	Ratify Deloitte & Touche LLP as Auditors	For	For	Against	Against	Votes AGAINST this item is warranted as the auditor's tenure at the company exceeds seven years.
Fifth Third Bancorp	04/12/2022	Management	17	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted. There is continued concern about the structure of the annual incentive plan, which provides the committee with significant discretion. However, annual incentives are primarily based on pre-set, quantitative metrics, and half of the long-term incentives are based on multi-year performance for which the primary forward-looking goals are clearly disclosed. In addition, pay and performance remain reasonably aligned at this time. Continued monitoring of the pay program is nevertheless warranted.
Fifth Third Bancorp	04/12/2022	Management	18	Yes	Amend Fifth Third Bancorp Code of Regulations to Add a Federal Forum Selection Provision	For	For	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted as exclusive forum provisions have the potential to deprive shareholders of the flexibility to choose the forum in which to file claims and as such cannot be supported under Public Fund Advisory Services policy.
FIGS, Inc.	06/08/2022	Management	1	Yes	Elect Director Catherine Spear	For	Withhold	Withhold	Withhold	WITHHOLD votes are warranted for incumbent director nominees Catherine Spear and Sheila Antrum given the board's failure to remove, or subject to a reasonable sunset requirement, the dual class capital structure, the supermajority vote requirement to enact certain changes to the governing documents and the classified board, each of which adversely impacts shareholder rights. WITHHOLD votes are further warranted for Sheila Antrum in the absence of a say-on-pay proposal on the ballot, due to an unmitigated pay-for-performance misalignment. In addition, the company entered into an agreement with the former CFO in 2021, which provides for problematic equity acceleration.

First Republic Bank	05/17/2022	Management	13	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. Some concern remains regarding the removal of a cap on Former CEO Herbert's (now executive chair) 2021 bonus without rationale, which contributed to a large payout for the year in review. While the disclosure of a bonus cap implemented for 2022 somewhat mitigates this concern, Herbert's potential bonus opportunity remains relatively high even with the newly disclosed cap. In addition, goal rigor concerns remain for the annual incentive. Lastly, concerns are also raised with respect to the inordinate amount of personal use of corporate aircraft perquisite provided to Herbert.

FleetCor Technologies Inc.	06/09/2022	Management	12	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. The compensation committee granted another front-loaded equity award to the CEO that, while conditioned upon achievement of stock price hurdles, is excessive even when annualized over the four years the award is intended to cover. The company has a history of periodic grants of excessive equity awards to the CEO, and the CEO's pay magnitude has been noted as a topic of shareholder feedback in the past. In addition, although annual and long-term incentives are sufficiently performance-based, annual LTI awards lack a long-term focus and disclosure of certain annual and LTI performance targets is lacking.

Flowserve Corporation	05/12/2022	Management	10	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. The company's regular annual and long-term incentive programs appear to be strongly performance-based, with the entire annual incentive and half of the long-term incentive tied to objective and quantifiable performance measures, and below-target payouts under both programs were aligned with the company's performance. However, one-time retention equity grants made to all of the NEOs in FY21 raise significant concerns given that none of the grants are tied to performance conditions, and the grants were in addition to regular LTI awards. Further, the CEO's retention grant significantly elevated his total pay at a time when performance lagged comparators and shareholders experienced losses.

Fortinet, Inc.	06/17/2022	Management	10	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted because: * Equity awards to the CEO in the most recent fiscal year lack performance-vesting conditions. * The company uses above-median benchmarking for NEOs' base salary; and * The company lacks risk-mitigating provisions such as a clawback policy, stock ownership guidelines or holding period requirements for executives.

Fortive Corporation	06/07/2022	Management	9	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, with caution. Certain factors have been identified that mitigate a pay-for-performance misalignment for the year under review. Although concern exists with respect to the fact that a significant portion of annual incentives are based on qualitative individual performance factors that lack disclosure, the compensation committee exercised negative discretion to reduce annual incentive payouts for FY21. In addition, the committee is moving in a positive direction on long-term incentives by increasing the proportion that is performance-based. Further, the three-year TSR metric is rigorous and below-target payout on the most recent completed PSU cycle indicates alignment with performance. Some concern is raised with respect to the magnitude of a sign-on equity award given to a new NEO; however, over a third of the award was tied to a rigorous multi-year performance goal and the committee responded to shareholder feedback by including enhanced disclosure around sign-on awards.

General Dynamics Corporation	05/04/2022	Shareholder	15	Yes	Require Independent Board Chair	Against	For	For	For	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote FOR this proposal is warranted as it seeks the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman to be an independent director.

General Electric Company	05/04/2022	Management	14	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. The compensation committee reduced the CEO's FY22 equity grant by $10 million and made a commitment not to similarly adjust performance metrics for previously granted awards. However, pay-for-performance concerns are raised for the year in review. The committee made a sizable adjustment to free cash flow for FY21, which appears to affect the performance metrics for both the short- and long-term incentive awards, and the adjustment is not well-explained. In addition, long-term incentive awards shifted from a three-year performance period to a single, annual performance period for the two primary metrics. Further, the company provided large relocation benefits to certain executives, along with significant tax reimbursements.

Globe Life Inc.	04/28/2022	Management	14	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	There is some concern surrounding above-median benchmarking at the company, which is heightened given the company's co-CEO structure. The potential impact of committee discretion in determining annual incentive awards also raises some concern. Many investors may prefer the use of a target grant value for equity awards rather than the company's practice of granting awards as a percentage of market capitalization. However, the annual incentive program is funded formulaically, initial payout determinations are based on pre-set disclosed goals, and the committee has used discretion to adjust payouts sparingly in practice. In addition, performance shares are earned based on clearly disclosed multi-year goals, and closing cycle awards were earned below target, which is directionally aligned with lagging three- and five-year TSR. On balance, a vote FOR this proposal is warranted, but with caution. Close continued monitoring of award sizes and pay determinations is warranted, given the concerns noted above.

Halliburton Company	05/18/2022	Management	13	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. Following last year's failed say-on-pay vote, the compensation committee has demonstrated only a limited degree of responsiveness to investor concerns. Further, for the year in review, ongoing concerns with respect to the long-term incentive program underscore a pay-for-performance misalignment. While acknowledging reporting challenges associated with the change in long-term incentive programs, the CEO's total target annual LTI award value has increased over the past two years without clear rationale, providing larger payout opportunities. The performance metrics also target merely median performance and have resulted in maximum payouts for several consecutive years, even resulting in maximum-level vesting when performance was negative in each of the last two cycles.

Harley-Davidson, Inc.	05/12/2022	Management	11	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. The committee made changes to compensation programs in response to investor feedback; however, concerns regarding the structure and magnitude of pay remain, particularly as the CEO's compensation nearly doubled year-over-year. The CEO's base salary remained high, even after the anticipated reduction for FY22. However, more concerning were actions taken in the long-term incentive program. The committee reduced the performance period for annual cycle long-term incentives from a multi-year measurement period to annually measured performance goals, limiting the long-term focus of the program. Further, the CEO's RSUs vest after just one year and his performance option grant does not require that the stock price achievements be sustained beyond the initial 10-day average.

Hexcel Corporation	05/05/2022	Management	9	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. Although annual incentive awards were based on pre-set quantitative goals and a majority of the CEO's equity awards are performance based, there are concerns surrounding the one-time "return to growth" equity award granted to all NEOs in FY21. The one-time awards were granted to offset below-target or forfeited STI and LTI awards under prior incentive plans, a practice which serves to circumvent pay-for-performance outcomes and is generally disfavored by investors. Concerns are heightened considering that, while the CEO's awards were majority performance based, grants, including the "return to growth" awards for other NEOs were majority time vesting. Lastly, the first tranche of the awards has already been deemed earned at maximum.

Hologic, Inc.	03/10/2022	Management	9	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted as the compensation committee demonstrated limited responsiveness to last year's low say-on-pay vote result. Although the company disclosed engagement efforts, certain feedback received from shareholders, and addressed one area of concern expressed by shareholders through certain changes to the LTI program, feedback surrounding two other areas of concern – a special bonus and enhanced retirement benefits – is vague. Such vague feedback makes it difficult for investors to assess what actions would be responsive to shareholders concerns. Further, the company did not make any substantial changes or firm commitments in respect of these noted concerns.

While pay and performance were reasonably aligned for the year in review, significant concerns are raised by adjustments made to long-term incentive awards in two consecutive years. Following adjustments to the FY20 equity grants which reduced the performance period and were described as "one-time" actions taken in response to COVID-19, the committee used discretion to also adjust FY19-21 grants to increase closing-cycle equity vesting. Investors may question the decision to make consecutive adjustments to long-term incentive awards.

Howmet Aerospace Inc.	05/25/2022	Management	12	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. Following last year's failed say-on-pay vote, the committee demonstrated only limited responsiveness. Although details of shareholder engagements and feedback are disclosed, the committee did not make changes to executive pay programs to address investor concerns. Further concerns are raised by the pay program for the year in review. CEO Plant received a significant special equity award for the third year in a row, despite the committee's previous statement that FY20 grants would cover three years. The award consists entirely of time-based RSUs with a relatively short vesting period and the committee's rationale for the grant is not viewed as compelling. Lastly, CEO Plant's recently amended letter agreement provides for excessive severance, which is viewed as a problematic pay practice by many investors.
Howmet Aerospace Inc.	05/25/2022	Shareholder	13	Yes	Require Independent Board Chair	Against	For	For	For	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote FOR this proposal is warranted as it seeks the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman to be an independent director. Moreover, there are ongoing concerns regarding the company's compensation practices and the board's responsiveness to shareholder concerns, which suggests that shareholders would benefit from the most robust form of independent oversight in the form of an independent board chair.

Following last year's low say-on-pay vote result, the company engaged with shareholders and disclosed the feedback it received, although shareholder feedback was only disclosed in broad terms. In response, the company defended its mega-grant to the CEO and stated that it did not grant him any equity awards in FY2021. However, the company did not provide new arguments to support the CEO's mega-grant and has not made a specific commitment not to grant additional equity to the CEO for a set number of years. As such, the compensation committee demonstrated insufficient responsiveness to a certain degree. In addition, the company provided an inordinate amount of personal use of corporate aircraft perquisite to the CEO and board chair.

B.1.a
Company Name	Meeting Date	Proponent	Proposal Sequence Number	Votable Proposal	Proposal Text	Management Recommendation	ISS Recommendation	Voting Policy Recommendation	Vote Instruction	Voting Policy Rationale
Intel Corporation	05/12/2022	Management	11	Yes	Ratify Ernst & Young LLP as Auditors	For	For	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this item is warranted as the auditor's tenure at the company exceeds seven years.
Intel Corporation	05/12/2022	Management	12	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	There are concerns regarding the compensation committee's limited degree of responsiveness to last year's failed say-on-pay vote. While the proxy discloses engagement efforts and shareholders' feedback, not all concerns are clearly fully addressed. Moreover, other pay program changes that were made following shareholder outreach are not all clearly positive. This falls short of the robust response that is expected following a failed vote. There are also unmitigated pay-for-performance concerns for the year in review. Annual incentive payouts were made well above target against goals that were lowered after their initial establishment due to a shift in company strategy. Further, NEO participation in a second bonus opportunity is questionable, when the primary program provides substantial pay opportunities (including the new CEO's relatively high target STI opportunity). Moreover, the company will reduce the proportion of performance-conditioned equity for non-CEO NEOs beginning with FY22 grants. Some investors may also find that the disclosed changes to both STI and LTI programs for next year do not clearly improve program rigor based on the current level of disclosure. Lastly, concerns are also raised with respect to the CEO's large security-related perquisite. In light of both responsiveness and unmitigated pay-for-performance concerns, a vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted.
Intel Corporation	05/12/2022	Management	13	Yes	Amend Omnibus Stock Plan	For	Against	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted because the company's potential Voting Power Dilution (VPD) for all incentive plans of 7.56 percent is reasonable.
Intel Corporation	05/12/2022	Shareholder	14	Yes	Reduce Ownership Threshold for Shareholders to Call Special Meeting	Against	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted as lowering the ownership threshold for shareholders to call a special meeting from 15 percent to 10 percent would enhance shareholders' rights.
Intel Corporation	05/12/2022	Shareholder	15	Yes	Report on Third-Party Civil Rights Audit	Against	Against	For	For	A vote FOR this resolution is warranted, as an independent civil rights audit would benefit shareholders by providing them additional means to assess the effectiveness of the company's diversity and inclusion initiatives and management of related risks.

Intercontinental Exchange, Inc.	05/13/2022	Management	11	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, as pay and performance are reasonably aligned at this time. A majority of short- and long-term incentives are based on objective performance criteria, with performance targets set above corresponding targets and actual performance for the prior year. However, executives can receive target payouts of TSR-based PSUs for performance at the index median, which shareholders typically do not view as a particularly rigorous goal. In addition, EBITDA-based PSUs have a performance period of only one year.
Intercontinental Exchange, Inc.	05/13/2022	Management	12	Yes	Approve Omnibus Stock Plan	For	For	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted because: * The plan administrator may provide loans to exercise awards. * The equity granted to the named executives during the last fiscal year exceeds 15 percent of total awards.

Following last year's failed say-on-pay vote the company engaged with shareholders and clearly disclosed the feedback received from shareholders regarding the prior year's one-time equity award to former NEO Whitehurst. No one-time awards were granted to NEOs during 2021, and the company states that it agrees that one-time grants should only occur in extraordinary circumstances, and that the company does not anticipate the need to provide one-time awards to its NEOs going forward. Additionally, the majority of CEO compensation remains conditioned on objective financial performance, resulting in an alignment between CEO pay and company performance. However, shareholders would benefit from improved incentive target disclosure going forward.

There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote FOR this proposal is warranted as it seeks the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman to be an independent director.

Invesco Ltd.	05/12/2022	Management	12	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	Annual incentive pay determinations are guided by performance assessments, but are ultimately discretionarily determined, which raises some concern. However, CEO pay and company performance are reasonably aligned for the year in review, and the year-over-year increase in CEO performance year incentive pay is directionally aligned with annual company performance. In addition, the company discloses quantified target goals for the financial performance scorecard, which provides some transparency into pay determinations. Further, long-term incentives are majority based on clearly disclosed multi-year goals, with a relative TSR metric that targets outperformance. On balance of these factors, a cautionary vote FOR this proposal is warranted. A quantitative pay-for-performance misalignment going forward may be met with increased scrutiny of the pay program's structure.

Jefferies Financial Group Inc.	03/29/2022	Management	13	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	Following the second consecutive year of low support for the say-on-pay proposal, the company disclosed details of its shareholder engagement efforts and certain feedback received. However, disclosure of certain expressed concerns is vague, and shareholders may question whether the transition to a new pay program that places a greater emphasis on discretion fully addresses their concerns. Disclosure around these issues needs improvement, and the committee has demonstrated only a limited degree of responsiveness to low say-on-pay support.The new pay program's reliance on committee discretion to determine NEO pay raises concerns, and incomplete disclosure of target goals, per-metric weightings, and target pay opportunities for certain NEOs inhibits investors' ability to fully assess the pay-for-performance linkage. Further, although half of FY21 performance year equity awards are based on clearly disclosed multi-year goals, the transition awards granted to the CEO and President in FY21 lack pre-set, multi-year performance criteria and vest solely over time. The magnitude of compensation opportunities for the CEO and President exacerbates structural concerns.In light of the company's limited responsiveness to last year's say-on-pay vote result and an unmitigated pay-for-performance misalignment, a vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted.

Johnson & Johnson	04/28/2022	Management	15	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, with caution. Following low support for the 2021 say-on-pay proposal, the company engaged with shareholders, disclosed their feedback in the proxy statement, and made improvements to 2022 proxy statement disclosure to address investors' concerns. In particular, the company provided greater disclosure of the factors considered by the compensation committee relating to non-GAAP adjustments and disclosed that the board has adopted new procedures for routinely evaluating such adjustments. In addition, incentive programs remain largely performance-conditioned, and CEO pay and company performance are reasonably aligned for the year in review. Further, although incentive metrics for 2021 were adjusted to exclude litigation-related expenses, the size of the adjustment was significantly lower than in 2019 and 2020, and the company affirms that the adjustments were not related to opioid litigation. However, greater details in the proxy regarding the reconciliation of GAAP and non-GAAP metrics would be beneficial to shareholders.

Johnson & Johnson	04/28/2022	Shareholder	26	Yes	Adopt Policy to Include Legal and Compliance Costs in Incentive Compensation Metrics	Against	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted in light of the significant shareholder concerns recently raised regarding the company's exclusion of certain litigation-related costs from the executive compensation program, along with the magnitude of recent litigation expenses and the continued exclusion of a similar expense from the 2021 incentive program. Given that the proposal would provide the board with flexibility to adjust the application of the policy in individual circumstances, with an explanation to shareholders, the request is not viewed as overly prescriptive.

JPMorgan Chase & Co.	05/17/2022	Management	11	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	The increase in reported CEO pay is primarily the result of a sizable, one-time award of stock appreciation rights. Although the CEO's annual LTI is entirely based on clearly disclosed multi-year goals, there are significant concerns regarding the structure of the one-time award, as the award lacks rigorous performance-vesting criteria, or even a premium exercise price. This structural concern is heightened given the substantial pay opportunities this off-cycle award provides. The executive pay program's reliance on discretion to determine annual incentives remains an ongoing concern, even when such discretion is guided by performance assessments against consistent metrics. While the company's recent improved performance may provide context to an increase in performance year pay, some investors may nonetheless question an increase in the CEO's annual-cycle award while long-term TSR lagged the S&P 500 and when the regular award was preceded by such a sizable one-time award. In light of these concerns, the quantitative pay-for-performance misalignment is not mitigated and a vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. A vote AGAINST this item is warranted as the auditor's tenure at the company exceeds seven years.

JPMorgan Chase & Co.	05/17/2022	Shareholder	13	Yes	Adopt Fossil Fuel Financing Policy Consistent with IEA's Net Zero 2050 Scenario	Against	Against	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted, as it should serve to enhance the company's current commitments to net zero activities and help ensure stronger alignment between the company's net zero goals and its policies and actions. Adoption of the resolution would also provide shareholders with a better understanding of the company's management and oversight of related risks.
JPMorgan Chase & Co.	05/17/2022	Shareholder	14	Yes	Reduce Ownership Threshold for Shareholders to Call Special Meeting	Against	For	For	For	A vote FOR this proposal is warranted as a lower ownership threshold would provide for a more useful special meeting right for shareholders.
JPMorgan Chase & Co.	05/17/2022	Shareholder	15	Yes	Require Independent Board Chair	Against	For	For	For	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote FOR this proposal is warranted as it seeks the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman to be an independent director.
JPMorgan Chase & Co.	05/17/2022	Shareholder	16	Yes	Disclose Director Skills and Qualifications Including Ideological Perspectives	Against	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this resolution is warranted because the company's Corporate Governance Principles state that the board strives to ensure diversity of representation among its members, the company already provides information regarding the experience and qualifications of director nominees in matrix format, and the company is not lagging behind its peers in board

Kemper Corporation	05/04/2022	Management	13	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	A vote AGAINST this proposal is warranted. Notwithstanding a year-over-year decrease in annual incentive payouts, there are concerns raised with the structure of the annual incentive program. The annual incentive pool is funded as a percentage of adjusted net income, which does not require year-over-year growth in order for pool funding to occur, and individual payout determinations are discretionarily determined. Further, although the majority of the CEO's long-term incentives are delivered in performance shares earned based on clearly disclosed multi-year goals, there are concerns regarding goal rigor under the LTI program, as the relative TSR PSUs merely target median performance and there is no disclosed cap in the event of negative absolute TSR.

Kilroy Realty Corporation	05/19/2022	Management	8	Yes	Advisory Vote to Ratify Named Executive Officers' Compensation	For	Against	Against	Against	The company disclosed the details of its outreach and engagement efforts with shareholders, as well as specific feedback received. However, the board does not appear to have made any material changes to severance-related issues since last year's say-on-pay vote that received only 55 percent support. The company re-affirmed that the legacy provision at issue in a former NEO's prior employment agreement will not be included in any new company employment agreements in the future, but that commitment was already disclosed by the company prior to the 2021 vote. The committee's statement in the 2022 proxy that "it will again consider, as it has in the past, the severance arrangements provided to our CEO when his contract is up for renewal" does not represent a meaningful commitment to reduce the CEO's problematic, excessive severance entitlement. Based on this, the committee demonstrated only a limited degree of responsiveness. As such, a vote AGAINST this
